Lions Convention

Over the weekend of April 20-22, 2012, the District A-12 Convention was held at the Deerhurst Resort in Huntsville. A contingent of five Schomberg Lions and one spouse headed north to participate in this annual get together. President Bob Gwalchmai, Immediate Past President Bill Koppens, Vice President Steve Fisher and Lions Marlene Koppens and Susanne Prince were all looking forward to enjoying a weekend of Lions fellowship, hospitality and entertainment. Cheryl Fisher was part of the merry band and became the photographer for the weekend!

Lion Bob preparing for the Hypnotist!

Nearly 300 Lions were registered for the weekend which began on Friday evening with the 'Parade of Banners' through the Convention Hall, after which we were entertained by a wonderful young magician, Sawyer Bullock, from Stayner.

Enjoying the Hospitality

Saturday started with a World Induction Ceremony and Q&A session with Beverly Stebbins, Past International Director and special guest at the Convention. Beverly was a wonderful speaker. After this came the Region Rallies during which it was observed that Schomberg had one of the biggest turnouts at the Convention. It was in fact Bradford Lions that had the most members and therefore won the trophy. The afternoon was taken up with the finals of the Effective Speaking contest, and a visit to the display area.

By 6pm everyone had gathered in the Ballroom in anticipation of the Gala Social and Dinner. The food and ambiance were wonderful. We were then entertained by 'Boris the Incredible' who truly lives up to his title! Several Lions volunteered to go on stage and subject themselves to the powers of Boris the Hypnotist... not everyone succumbed but many did, to everyone's amazement.

On both Friday and Saturday evenings, after the organized entertainment, hospitality rooms were hosted by fellow Lions for drinks, food and conversation.

The weekend finished on a more thoughtful note with a Memorial Service on Sunday morning – Schomberg's Gerry Oostwoud was one of many honoured for their contribution as a Lion. During the following brunch, the official results of the election were read out for Cabinet Officers and Chairs for 2012 – 2013. Elmsdale Lion Maureen Hilt will be our new District Governor for District A-12.
