December 2008

Happy Customers

“ A Main Street Christmas” took place this year on December 6, and with the mild temperature and light snow it turned out to be a beautiful evening .

By keeping the menu simple and not serving fries our customers were served promptly as can be seen by the satisfied family in the picture.

On top of this we even made a profit! Thanks to all who worked in the trailer and ticket booth.

Meetings

Schomberg Community Hall, Main Street
6:30 pm 1st and 3rd Mondays

November 17, Fire Fighter's Night

Jim Wall (Assistant Fire Chief for King Township) and several members of the Fire Department were guests for dinner. Jim introduced all of the other firefighters in attendance, and spoke about the Fire Department. they have introduced some new types of specialized training, in particular Ice Water Rescue and Trench Rescue.

Also he mentioned that the Township Fire Department has 109 members on staff and that they expect to respond to approximately 1100 calls throughout this year

December 1, Invite another Club

Lion John Gaffey

Members of the Bond Head lions Club and the Beeton Lions Club were our dinner guests at the meeting on December 1st.

Lion Brenda Vernon from Beeton gave a talk about some of the activities their club gets involved in.

Following on, Lion John Gaffey from Bond Head spoke about their club.

Lion Doug Groombridge presented both speakers with Schomberg Lions 60th Anniversary pins

Presentation to Shirley Green in memory of Norm Green

Lion Bill Hanlon accompanied by Mallory Groombridge went to visit Shirley Green in Barrie to present a plaque honouring her late husband Norm for all the work he did in the Schomberg Community, Lion Bill writes;

“ We delivered the Remembrance Day Plaque in memory of Norm Green , Shirley is now living in Barrie Manor, and was very happy to see us, especially to see Monica and Mallory, they had a great reunion and visit.

Mrs. Green is very sharp mentally but her health is not the best so if anyone wishes to communicate with her she is at:”
