January 2011

Christmas Party a lot of Fun!

The Annual Christmas Party was on Monday the 20th December, and a lot of fun indeed, thanks primarily to Gail Feeney and her assistant Paul.

After a dinner of turkey and all the trimmings cooked and served by Betty Tomlinson and Barb Hitchman, Lion Gail Feeney ran the live Auction, she had asked each couple to bring a wrapped gift in the $15 range and each one one auctioned off to the highest bidder.

The bidding was furious and competitive, followed by some after auction negotiations as people saw that someone else had a gift they preferred.

Some went away with enough presents for the whole family on Xmas day, and the auction raised over $140!

Thanks to Gail and Paul for all the fun and Marlene & Bill for all the lovely drinks!

Lion Gail auctioned off a parcel with hand crafted wrapping paper

The Hanlons and Hoares negotiate between chocolates and wine!

Tom and Mara Wray enjoying the family skate

For several years now the Schomberg Lions Club has sponsored a Family Skate on the Sunday before Christmas, we pay for the ice and a snack & drink for the kids. This year 78 tickets were given out, one of the highest ever!

Christmas Gifts for those in Need

Lion President Bill with a delivery of food and gifts for a Schomberg needy family. Food and gifts from Aurora Lions Club.

Lions Bill and Joe helped Aurora Lions deliver to over 180 families on Dec. 20th. Lions Bill and Marlene also helped the Aurora Lions Dec. 30th with the clean up of extra gifts and food that was delivered to the Aurora Food Bank.

Donation from King Curling

Doug Groombridge, president of the King Curling club has informed us that the recent Bon Spiel generated a donation of $100 to Schomberg Lions.

We were very pleased to be fed by a new caterer for the club, Cindy Rawlins who served a pasta in mushroom and beef sauce, delicious!

December Business Meeting

Due to the Season's holidays the business meeting was cancelled.
