JUNE 2013

Schomberg Fair Weekend May 25 & 26

The Parade on Saturday, thanks to Lions Marlene, Steve & Paul, for representing us and handing out goodies to all the kids.

Lion Bill Hanlon supervised from a truck that was following them!

The Pancake Breakfast on Sunday

A annual event for years and one that get's us close to the community. In the picture you can see Lion Brenda organising the serving table, while the customers are being served by Helena Jaczek, MPP and her assistant.

Due to other commitments I couldn't participate but I have been told that customer demand was nice and steady all morning!

Dinner Meeting May 6th With guests from Holland Landing & Aurora Lions Clubs

Karen McGrundle of Aurora Lions picking the winning ticket for the 50/50 draw

We were very pleased to host 6 members from Holland Landing and 5 from Aurora.

Of particular pleasure to me was the presence of Paul Feeney, long time member of Schomberg Lions and now with Holland Landing.

Community Yard Sale

This is a new event organised by the Township. It took place in the Trisan Centre

Bob & Susanne manned the Lions tent and sold a variety of drinks & baked goods, for a profit of $200

Happy Eaters!

A Clown participated

Serving was non-stop!

Bulletin Editor No More!

You get to an age when health is not what it was and all energy needs to be spent meeting house & home issues, I feel that age now so I am retiring as Bulletin editor after this issue.

It has always been fun covering all the events, capturing photos of all the happenings and reporting on the decision made at the Business meetings, but now I know I cannot commit to attend all meetings etc

I first started in late 2002 and other than a period when Steve Fisher took over for a couple of years I've kept it up.

I took over the job from Don Kitchen, who along with Don Coffey, pointed me on the right direction.

I believe a decision has been made to cancel the monthly bulletin and do everything on line, I know many of you are disappointed about that but it is a worthwhile experiment, and the way of the world nowadays.

So thank you for reading and putting up with my prattle!

John

Schomberg Parade in 2007

Joyously celebrating our 60th anniversary!

I wrote this in 2004 after my daughter died, I still think it summarises what I believe to be the essence of Lionism, being there for one another!

On Being a Lion

I've been a Lion for a couple of years now, and during that time I've often wondered as to what being a Lion is all about.

Surely it's not just the opportunity to eat mounds of mash Potatoes, corn and piles of roast beef 20 times a year? Nor can it be the opportunity to serve pancakes and bacon to nearly 300 people on the last Sunday in May.

Maybe it's the thrill of standing on a freezing cold evening in December and relishing the fumes of French Fries and hamburgers whilst hungry but patient consumers wait for the fryer to be fixed.

But recently I had a profound insight as to what being a Lion is.

After the death of my daughter in late April this year I found that being a Lion is to be part of a community that cares, and not just in words but in action. The roast chicken dinner that was delivered late on Saturday afternoon, the caring expressions of those who came to the Funeral Parlour on the Sunday, and the patience and consideration shown to me as I gradually climb back onto life's giddy ride.

I'm proud to be part of this Lion's community, and tried to express my appreciation by walking in the Fair Parade, and giving witness to Schomberg that being a Lion is a very special privilege.

Thanks

John Bradbury
