New President Lion Bill Koppens

Lion Bill has taken over as President of the Schomberg Lions Club again. He was in that role from 1999 to 2001. Bill already has ideas for new events this year, including the upcoming Spaghetti dinner in November and a Sweetheart Dance in February.

Lions Present $45,000 Cheque Sep 16, 2009

The Lions gathered on Wednesday evening (Sep 16) at the Osin -Lions Park on Western Avenue in Schomberg, to present a cheque for $45,000 to King Township.

This money will be used for the newly constructed playground.

On hand to accept the cheque on behalf of the Township were Mayor Margaret Black and Councillor Bill Cober.

Schomberg Soccer Club Sept 12, 2009

This year the Schomberg Soccer Club held their annual tournament at the soccer fields on Pottageville Park. It was a busier event than in previous years with lots of hungry young players and their parents to be fed.

Sad News

Lion Nick Kirk passed away this weekend (Oct 18). This Friday - Oct 23 - there will be a memorial at 11 am followed by a service at 12:45 pm in the Schomberg Community Hall.

Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile. (Albert Einstein)

Schomberg Lions Help Kids Build Bird Feeders Oct 3, 2009

After a successful collaboration last year, the Lions again got together with members from the Dufferin Marsh Committee to hold a Bird Feeder building workshop for the local kids. The kits were supplied by the Marsh Committee and the Lions were there to supervise the actual building using hammers and nails.

Approximately 40 feeders were constructed throughout the day. The event was timed to coincide with Doors Open, Schomberg Village Street Gallery and the Schomberg Scarecrows.

Community Spirit Event Oct 3, 2009

This year for the first time a Farmer's Market was held during the morning. It was supposed to be an outdoor event, but we had so much rain in the preceding weeks that it was moved into the Community Hall. There was also pumpkin carving for the kids in the Agricultural Society Building.

In the evening there was a Bonfire and entertainment on the stage. It was quite wet and muddy, but there was quite a crowd out enjoying the evening. The Lions had the cooking trailer there for the market and the evening entertainment.
