Two New Members for 2012

At the first meeting of 2012, Lion President Bob inducted two new members, Brenda See, and Jack Lambie, shown in the picture with their sponsors, Susanne Prince for Brenda and Paul Feeney for Jack.

Brenda is a resident of Schomberg and is very active in a number of local community groups, she has already participated in some of the recent Lions events.

Jack is the son of Bob Lambie who was an active member of the Club up to a couple of years ago until he moved out East to Nova Scotia.

We look forward to their input into the future of Schomberg Lions and thank both Paul and Susanne for introducing us to them!

Dinner Meeting, January 9 2012

In addition to the Induction of two new members we were privileged to have as guests Wendy-Sue Bishop and representing York Region police, Robyn Kassam.

Robyn gave us a presentation on the new Community Policing Centre in Schomberg and said there are 35 volunteers involved.

She also gave a presentation on personal security and of the importance of protecting our banking information etc and said that fraud and identity theft is on the increase. Seniors are especially vulnerable.

Lions International

In the U.S., Lions are one-and-a-half times more likely to give to charity than the overall population.

Lions clubs members' rates of both charitable giving and volunteering are significantly higher than the general population in all 12 countries. In the U.S., Lions clubs members were nearly four times more likely to volunteer and one-and-a-half times more likely to give to charity than the overall population.

- Internationally, 92 percent of Lions clubs members surveyed donated to charitable causes and 86 percent volunteered
- In the U.S., 97 percent of members donated and 97 percent volunteered
- By comparison, approximately 65 percent of all American households give to charity; 26 percent volunteer, according to the Corporation for National and Community Service

"We are pleased to release this new study as we prepare to celebrate Lions Clubs International's 95th anniversary this year," said Peter Lynch, executive director of Lions Clubs International. "The study findings highlight the strong connections Lions clubs members have to their communities. These findings reaffirm what we thought, but until now we have not had the data to quantify Lions clubs members' action and community engagement worldwide."

UK Lions Raise Funds with Icy Plunge

For the past 37 years the Lions Club of Sunderland have challenged swimmers to brave freezing temperatures on Boxing Day for the Sunderland Boxing Day Dip off of Seaburn. This year, 1,200 people signed up to participate, making it the largest event of its kind in Britain.
