January 2012

Gerry Oostwoud

1943-2012

We were saddened to learn of the death of Lion Gerry Oostwoud, who passed away on January 2nd after being in a coma for several days.

Gerry became a member in 1998 and was President in 2002-2003.

Gerry was always an active member even while he divided his time between the Lions, his horses and his business.

He loved old tractors as many of our club do and would always show up at the Fair Parade driving his latest model as can be seen in the photo.

At the Pancake Breakfast he always set an example of customer service and put some of us to shame wearing his Lions regalia to perfection.

He was a very active man but most of all a fine family man and we offer our condolences to his wife Emmeline, his children and all the rest of his family and friends.

Thank You Gerry.

Annual Free Skate At the Trisan Centre

For the first time the Lions Annual free Skate took place at the new Arena, the Trisan Centre, and it was a great success especially with the presence of a Skating Santa!

Santa came as the guest of local resident Tom Wray. In the picture are Lions Steve Fisher, Bill Koppens, Bill Hanlon, Harry Hoare, and Marlene Koppens.

The ice time cost us $350 and a bag of Sugar canes $20.

The kids had a great time and Santa enjoyed the experience as can be seen by the Cheryl Fisher's pictures!

Christmas Dinner at the Cardinal Golf Club

With a complete break with tradition the Christmas Party in 2011 was held at the Cardinal Golf Club, where we enjoyed a sumptuous dinner, joyful camaraderie, and some guests who give their time to the the community.

Thanks to Bob & Susanne and all who helped for this wonderful evening.
